

BEA professional development grants

An opportunity for you to join us in Brisbane for the BEA Conference 2010

Business Educators Australasia (BEA), in conjunction with affiliate organisations, is offering an opportunity for teachers who have been teaching for less than five years to attend the BEA Conference in Brisbane, Queensland on 15 to 17 July 2010.

BEA will be making two grants available to teachers from Australia and New Zealand. The grant will cover airfare and registration fees for the conference.

Who is eligible?

Any teacher who has been teaching for five years or less in the Business Education/Economics area and who is a member of a BEA affiliate.

How can I apply?

Submit an application of 500 words or less on 'what benefits you and your teacher association would obtain from you interacting with teachers in your subject area from across Australia and New Zealand'.

What will you receive?

Airfare from your nearest capital city and registration fees to attend the BEA Conference 2010 on 15–17 July to be held in Brisbane, Queensland.

Submissions should be received no later than 26 March 2010 by your local affiliate organisation of which you are a member (for contact details refer to last page).
